AUGUST 2021

Pretty honeysuckle and flint aromatics waft from the glass of this finely knit white, which displays well-cut acidity and a creamy mix of steeped raspberry, white cherry, blood orange, almond and anise...Pleasing vibrancy and balance here, making it so sippable now, but its focus and structure recommend it equally to cellaring... — A.N.

...A wine of silken richness and savory floral power, delivered with the ease and nonchalance of a great site. While the grandeur of the wine is already apparent, it will require several years of cellar time to reach its full expression. — T.T.

SEPTEMBER 2017

...Complex aromas of white peach, talcum powder, anise and balsamic oils. Enters full and round, then slightly more austere, displaying a minty quality to the ripe yellow stone fruit flavors. Finishes long and savory with a strong note of licorice. A very complex, balanced wine that will age well. — I.D.
