POINTS

JANUARY 2020

...Balanced intensity and classic lines... distinguished by those estate-specific savory and sanguine notes that recall rusty nail or iron, all followed by balsam herb, powdered licorice and even a touch of eucalyptus oil. The wine's texture is medium in weight and... buoyant in mouthfeel. – M.L.

POINTS

JULY 2020

Aromas of underbrush, wild berry, leather, camphor and Mediterranean herb waft out of the glass. The full-bodied palate... shows great aging potential, delivering juicy red cherry, pomegranate, licorice and tobacco set against firm tannins while bright acidity keeps it balanced. – K.O.

POINTS

APRIL 2020

...Dark dusty florals, exotic spices and a hint of brown sugar... wave after wave of crushed strawberry, cherry and sweet violets lifts from the glass... Sweet and savory red berry fruits, so silky and refined, as it seems to hover weightlessly, while saline minerals and youthful tannins... The finish is long and structured... Wow. – E.G.
