Salentein's new San Juan project is one to watch... Ultraripe aromas of blackberry, prune, raisin and marzipan. A pure and layered palate is structured... Toasty, blackened cassis and berry flavors reign, while this is chocolaty and tastes of wild berry fruits on the finish... – M.S.

Plenty of sweet plum fruit, but also quite a bit of charcoal from oak on the nose. Impressive tannic structure and good acidity at the long, fresh finish. A bold malbec. Drink or hold. - J.S.
