NOVEMBER 2020

The Mâconnais is becoming to "go-to" place for affordable white Burgundy... This single-vineyard bottling... is both creamy and stony. Paradoxically, it is both subtle and penetrating with a hint of smokiness in the finish... invigorating and refined.

DECEMBER 2019

Lightly smoky aromas as well as a crisp texture set this wine on a course with good potential. Its acidity and tangy character are balanced with the minerality and texture. Drink the wine from 2020. - R.V.

TFS TASTING NOTE: Powerful, quite ample and fresh. A mouth structured by its terroir. Menthol dominates first, followed by notes of pears picked at maturity. The white peach then presents itself with aromas of white flowers. The finish is long and fresh.
