TUSCANY, ITALY

“Simposio” Vino Nobile DOCG

“Santa Caterina” Vino Nobile DOCG

“Salterio” Sangiovese

TRE ROSE is located near the historic Tuscan town of Montepulciano, in the prestigious appellation of Vino Nobile di Montepulciano DOCG.

The estate’s commitment to Sangiovese, locally called Prugnolo, its unique terroir and its precise viticultural and vinification techniques culminate in the production of distinctive, high quality wines.

The Vino Nobile production zone is positioned on a hilly ridge between Val di Chiana and Val d’Orcia at altitudes between 820 and 1900 feet.

The TRE ROSE estate is located in a picturesque 16th century Tuscan villa, Villa Romizi, on the hills of Valiano di Montepulciano. 103 hectares of vines are planted on five sloped vineyards, rich in different soils and exposures, that fan into an amphi-theater shape.

Precision Viticulture is practiced, whereby each vine’s location is recorded and categorized per the soil type it grows in. When harvested, grapes that grow in the same soil type get vinified together. This painstaking practice allows TRE ROSE to exploit the diversity that their vineyards enjoy.

The climate is largely influenced by the nearby Trasimeno Lake, tempering the cold continental climate of this region of inland Tuscany.

In prehistoric times, these lands were covered with dense savannah, where exotic animals roamed. Fossil evidence can be found of hippopotamuses, rhinoceroses, and mammoths. Over time, as the region’s water sources dried up, the leftover silt deposits and fossil sediment mixed with sandstone and salt rich clay, which cover the TRE ROSE vineyards.

Remains of an entire mammoth was found during a dig in the vineyard in front of the winery cellar.

The TRE ROSE estate dates back to the Roman times, evidence of which has been preserved in the ruins in front of the villa.

The centuries following have all left their mark on this historic property: the 15th century owner - an important bishop - whose family’s coat of arms is represented in the winery’s logo, to the early 19th century street signs left on the property.

"SANTA CATERINA" VINO NOBILE DOCG 2014
Vino Nobile di Montepulciano DOCG, Italy

This Vino Nobile is grown in the amphitheater shaped-Santa Caterina vineyard, which benefits from diverse soil types and exposures. Grapes grown in the same soil type are harvested together, through precision viticulture, and are fermented separately to amplify their particular characteristics.

The different selections are aged separately in barriques, 10-hl casks and 30-40-hl barrels.

Fresh, fruit-forward and rich, Santa Caterina offers quality far beyond its cost.

"SIMPOSIO" VINO NOBILE DOCG 2013
Vino Nobile di Montepulciano DOCG, Italy

Simposio pays homage to Plato's famous discourse on love, Symposium. The ancient philosophical text accounts of a banquet feast, where the attendees deliver speeches in praise of Eros, god of love.

The wine matures for 3 years in barrique, followed by an additional twelve months aging in bottle.

Powerful and elegant, with complex notes of minerals, spice and hints of coffee. A firm structure opens up to a balanced palate of mineral and sweet flavors.

100% Prugnolo Gentile (Sangiovese)

"SALTERIO" SANGIOVESE 2015
Rosso di Montepulciano DOC, Italy

Salterio is a versatile and food-friendly wine. The term Salterio refers to a stringed instrument dating back to 300 B.C. The interior of the instrument held the Book of Psalms, which was sung using the instrument as accompaniment.

Fermented in stainless steel, then aged for some months in 55hl French oak and chestnut barrels.

Ample nose of rich, red fruit. On the palate, fresh and rich flavors of prunes and cherries are complemented by velvety tannins and crisp acidity.

90% Prugnolo Gentile (Sangiovese), 10% Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon

Current Vtg in Stock 2015
