A lovely, flinty hint of reduction still swings on the nose. The palate is juicy and has both ease and concentration, expressed by lovely, pleasantly bitter phenolics that seem to amplify the freshness. The finish is juicy, rounded and fresh. —A.K.

The most polished of the three gruners tasted from this producer, this has impressive focus and purity with fresh pears and melon, some gently spicy notes and a succulent, long and fresh finish. Really composed. Drink now. —J.S.
