MAY 2020

...Soft textures envelope the palate in ripe fruits, showing more melon now than red fruit, but with a penetrating zing of vibrant acids which motivate the experience and expose the senses to salty minerals. On the finish...strawberry spectrum, along with alluring inner florals that seem to go on and on and on. – E.G.

OCTOBER 2020

Lovely aromas of peaches, roses and wild strawberries with some minerals and wild flowers, following through to a round, silky medium body and a long, fresh finish. A long time favorite. Drink now and enjoy. – J.S.
