FEBRUARY 2022

...Wild thyme, buttercup, lemon-grass and chamomile aromas. Limey citrus punctuates the summer-meadow on the medium-bodied palate, adding focus and direction. All comes together on the long finish. This is what top, young fiano is about. Enjoy now, or even hold. – J.S.

JANUARY 2022

...Firm with a spicy bouquet of sour apple, lemon zests and lime complemented by sweet florals and hints of smoke... a core of saline-infused acidity and tart orchard fruits. It leaves a glycerol-like coating of primary concentration upon the senses, which slowly melts away to reveal chalky minerals and an enriching nuance of almond paste... – E.G.

DECEMBER 2021

Aromas of smoke, hazelnut and stone fruit form the nose on this classy white. The aromas carry over to the dry, elegantly structured palate along with ripe pear, lemon, bitter almond and saline mineral. A honeyed note lingers on the close. —K.O.
