FEBRUARY 2021

This single-vineyard wine is rich and structured. With its ripe black fruits and partial wood aging that adds spice, the wine has density and further aging potential. Drink from 2022. – R.V.

MARCH 2021

At once ripe, fresh and concentrated, this is an impressive, modern Cru Beaujolais with plenty of black-cherry and violet aromas. The fine tannins support the rather sleek body... very nicely and the spice at the long finish pulls you back for more. Drink or hold. – J.S.

Pure red cherry and tangy raspberry notes are glossy and elegant in this light-bodied red. Details of licorice, orange zest, spice and mineral notes meld into the finish. Drink now through 2029. – G.S.
