

COL D'ORCIA

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO
DOCG 1997

Tuscany, Italy

...Silky textures give way to fleshy red berry fruits, offset by saturating minerality and acids, while remaining energetic and leaning further toward the savory spectrum. The finish is long, still showing hints of fine tannin, yet the message here is elegance. The 1997 is simply gorgeous. ...Many years of positive evolution in store... – E.G.
