JUNE 2021

...Textures are like weighted velvet, yet the expression is medium-bodied in feel, with a polished display of black fruits lifted by vibrant acids as hints of white pepper give way to dark inner florals... a savory display of dried plums and blackberries... -E.G.

MARCH 2021

...Dark fruit, bramble, white pepper, crushed stone and rosemary essence... the wine's personality embraces a more tonic or focused style with inner tension and verve. It focuses on length, not textural width... A wine that succinctly relays its intention and uses few words to do so. - M.L.

OCTOBER 2021

A pure beam of ripe black cherry fruit is laced with delicate graphite and star anise accents, pulling you into this graceful red. A smoky underpinning is subtle, layered with roasted plum and dried thyme notes on the midpalate, while fine tannins define the finish... -A.N.

NOVEMBER 2020

...Brambleberries with tobacco-leaf, licorice and spice notes. It's medium-bodied with nice acidity and fine, integrated tannins. Some bitter cacao on the finish. Drink or hold. - J.S.
