NOVEMBER 2020

Super focused, sleek and cool in spite of its considerable concentration, this Alsace dry riesling needs several years of bottle age to open up and reveal the aromatic treasures that are currently under lock and key. Only hints of lemon and plum showing right now. Very long, complex and delicate finish with so much energy... – J.S.

...Opens with clear, elegant and coolish, stony and flinty-scented Riesling fruit. Fine-grained on the first palate, this is a tightly-woven, intense yet elegant and pretty grippy Riesling with sustainable length and salinity. There are delicate grapefruit bitters on the finish... -S.R.
