POINTS

OCTOBER 2021

Lavishly floral... focuses on intensely ripe blackberry and blueberry flavors dusted with a shower of basalt and struck granite. Satiny on the palate and held upright by piercing black-currant acidity... sleek, supple Syrah... —A.I.

JUNE 2021

This red delivers an impressive rush of steeped blueberry and black cherry compote flavors, lined with subtle bay leaf, warm earth and sweet tapenade notes. There's a floral hint to add lift on the finish, along with ample grip for the cellar. — J.M.

DECEMBER 2022

...Juicy and appealingly sweet, offering pliant boysenberry, cherry and spicecake flavors with a touch of smoky bacon. The floral note reappears on the gently tannic finish, which hangs on with strong, spicy persistence. —J.R.

MAY 2021

Summer-like scents of crushed stone, dusty roads, dried herbs and wild blackberries appear on the nose... Medium to full-bodied, it's supple and ripe, smooth and easy to drink, with a long, silky finish that adds savory hints of beef and anise. — J.C.
