

DOMAINE COFFINET-DUVERNAY

CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET VILLAGE 2014

BACKGROUND

The intimate Domaine Coffinet-Duvernay is located in the illustrious village of Chassagne, in the southern Côte de Beaune. The estate is owned by Phillippe Duvernay and his partner Laura Coffinet who set out on their winemaking venture with just seven vineyards, including the Grand Cru Batard Montrachet. The estate encompasses seven hectares across the appellation in total, four of which are dedicated to its outstanding white wine, in particular Chassagne Chardonnay, and three are dedicated to red. This specialist estate produces beautifully crafted wines that capture the intense aromas and flavor of their distinguished terroir like few other boutique wineries in the region. Capable of aging for decades, these impeccable wines have never been available in the United States before now.

APPELLATION

Burgundy, France

VARIETAL COMPOSITION

100% Chardonnay

WINEMAKING & VINTAGE NOTES

This Village cuvée is comprised of 7 lieux-dits parcels that each bring elements of either minerality, acidity and fruit to form a well-balanced blend representative of Chassagne-Montrachet and of Philippe Duvernay's style.

TASTING NOTES

Very expressive nose with lemon curd and white flowers intertwining effortlessly to offer a true expression of the Chassagne terroir. Vibrant minerality and acidity without being too aggressive. Lush mouthfeel and lingering finish.
