RISERVA LUNELLI 2015

Trentino, Italy

...A sweetly seductive mix of ginger and cinnamon spice, complementing baked apple and pear. This washes across the palate with cooling minerality, as tart orchard fruits and notes of raw almond resonate throughout. The finish is long and full of zesty tension... notes of sour lime and a salty flourish that lingers... Already showing beautifully today, but it has a bright future. -E.G.

Subdued aromas suggesting toasted hazelnut, bread crust and mature white stone fruit shape the nose. The dry, linear, rather lean palate picks up where the nose leaves off, offering coconut, oak, Meyer lemon and yellow apple skin. An elegant perlage and crisp acidity accompany the linear palate. —K.O.
