OCTOBER 2021

This lithe, silky red is light- to medium-bodied, with pretty sandalwood and violet accents to the pure cherry and raspberry fruit flavors, followed by hints of loamy earth and light herbs on the finish. Nero d'Avola and Frappato. Drink now through 2024. – A.N.

NOVEMBER 2021

...A mid-weight red with a bright and punchy bouquet. The nose is redolent of wild cherry and plum, and there is a hint of red rose. A lean and silky finish culminates with a pretty point of fresh acidity. There are light notes of toasted herb and licorice as well. ... – M.L.

JUNE 2021

...Rubbed sage, black currants and crushed stone, all offset by a beguiling hint of grilled pineapple. It's silky and textural while displaying outstanding purity, with tart woodland berries and minerals cascading across a core of vibrant acidity. Energy remains high... adding tension and framing the experience nicely... – E.G.
