SEPTEMBER 2021

An elegant version, with soft, lightly chewy tannins and a subtle layer of citrus peel acidity framing finely meshed flavors of sun-dried cherry, date, black tea leaf, smoke and graphite. Long and spicy on the finish. Drink now through 2026. — A.N.

JANUARY 2021

...The nose is lifted, with dried rose notes along with a mellowed bouquet of tobacco and leather. Linear and mineral-driven rather than lush, it is a midweight, graceful offering and already quite drinkable. Drinking Window 2020 - 2027. — M.M.

FEBRUARY 2021

...Alluring display of baked cherries, raisins, brown sugar and dried roses that provides a refreshing lift. This is silky, traversing both savory and sweet territory, with ripe wild berries and autumnal spices offset by zesty hints of orange citrus and herbal tones. It tapers off balanced and fresh, resonating on black fruits, licorice and a subtle tug of fine tannin... —E.G.
