APRIL 2020

This is a vibrant, structured wine that has a good balance between the tannins and exuberant black fruits. In that sense, it is typical Fleurie: ripe, full and on the way to attractive maturity. Drink from 2021. —R.V.

A glossy, light-bodied red, with anise-lined cherry and raspberry notes that are pure and focused. Accents of rose petal, woody spice and toast meld into the long finish. Drink now through 2025. — G.S.

From a 250-acre domaine based at a historic château in Brouilly, this is a tense and floral Fleurie with generous dark-chocolate tannins that last. It's ripe and concentrated, a wine to cellar. — T.T.
