

JEAN-LUC COLOMBO

SAINT-PERAY "LA BELLE DE MAI" 2019

Rhône Valley, France

92

POINTS

Wine Spectator
www.winespectator.com

JUNE 2021

Very tasty, a bright, floral style, this white offers lots of honeysuckle and acacia draped over white peach and yellow plum flavors, with a subtle brioche accent on the finish. Drink now through 2022. — J.M.

91

POINTS

 WINEENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE

AUGUST 2021

Fresh yellow apples and pears are dusted with hints of tangerine zest, allspice and honey in this plump, tea-tinged blend of 60% Roussanne and 40% Marsanne... it's a cream-textured white edged by twists of bitter walnut skin and orange-peel spice as well as lingering oak tannins... —A.I.

90

POINTS

eRobertParker.com

MAY 2021

...Ripe and round, honeyed and rich, yet possessing adequate structuring acids and a lingering, silky-textured finish, it's a full-bodied, mouthfilling white that should drink well for a couple of years. — J.C.