AUGUST 2021

...Opens slowly in the glass revealing violet, lavender, olive, bay leaf, bitter cherry and damson plum flavors working together, all backed by a solid cast iron note. Best from 2023 through 2036. — J.M.

OCTOBER 2021

...Penetrating cassis flavor accented by layers of thyme, charred earth and violet... the supple, richly concentrated wine has a spicy, lavishly smoky finish. A thoroughly modern expression of Cornas... —A.I.

DECEMBER 2022

...Smooth and expansive on the palate, offering appealingly sweet dark berry and cherry-cola flavors that deepen through on the back half. Shows impressive energy and spicy thrust on the gently tannic finish, which hangs on with strong, smoky tenacity. —J.R.
