So much sweet tobacco with blackberry and spice. Some dried meat, too. Medium-bodied with very fine tannins and a light chocolate and spice undertone. A new wine from here. Drink now. – J.S.

Richly fruity, offering dark plum and dark currant flavors that are pure and direct, with peppery accents in the midpalate. The finish lingers with dark chocolate, cream and dried green herbal hints... – K.M

...The nose offers blackberry and raspberry plus fine hints of black pepper and bacon. Juicy on the palate with firm tannins... and a voluminous flow, it has a pleasantly flavorful effect at the back of the mouth and a fresh aftertaste. A tasty wine. – J.H.
