This is a powerfully ripe yet bristling, balanced wine full of sultry black-cherry and cassis flavors... It's a weighty Pinot Noir accented by hints of smoke, sweet spice and graphite. While still firm in tannin, the wine is approachable young and will likely improve through 2030... – A.I

From a parcel at the northern border of the climat, touching Taillepièdes, comes the 2019 Volnay 1er Cru Clos des Chênes, a medium to full-bodied, velvety and concentrated wine evocative of sweet red berries, spices, raw cocoa and forest floor. Built around bright acids and velvety tannins, it's a fine effort. – W.K.
