NOVEMBER 2021

This wine shows a bright bouquet that is driven by loads of fresh fruit... redolent of fresh summer cherry, dried raspberry and wild plum... tannic impact is light. The wine presents an accessible and highly drinkable approach with your favorite southern Italian pasta dish. -M.L.

JUNE 2023

...Dark and earthy, grumbling up with suggestions of plum sauce and grilled herbs complicated by flowery undergrowth. It's soft and round yet quite mineral in style, taking on a crunchy sensation as tart wild berry fruits cascade across the palate. Blackberry hints linger through the licorice-tinged finale... Finishes grippy and long. -E.G.

MARCH 2022

Aromas of Mediterranean scrub and black-skinned berry shape the nose along with the barest whiffs of oak. Made with 60% Nero d'Avola and 40% Nocera, the elegantly structured palate features fleshy cherry and crushed blackberry alongside polished, enveloping tannins... - K.O.
