A beauty, offering a dark and alluring core of steeped plum and blackberry fruit inlaid with a graphite edge and flanked on both sides by dark bay leaf, cast iron and singed juniper accents. Stays very precise through the finish... —J.M.

...Juicy and expansive in the mouth, offering appealingly sweet blackberry and cherry-cola flavors and building spice and smoked meat nuances. Closes very long and smooth, with sneaky tannins adding shape to a repeating dark berry note. — J.R.
