

COL D'ORCIA

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO 2017

Tuscany, Italy

#55 TOP 100 OF 2022

93
POINTS

Wine Spectator
www.winespectator.com

DECEMBER 2022

This red offers plenty of cherry, strawberry, wild thyme and sage flavors. Starts out on the elegant side, before chewy tannins kick in and show a more robust character. Balanced and long, with tobacco and earth accents on the finish... —B.S.

93
POINTS

Robert Parker
eRobertParker.com

FEBRUARY 2022

...Captures the freshness and brightness of Sangiovese... A learned comfort with organic farming is key to this wine's detailed aromas of black cherry, crushed rose and Mediterranean herb.... — M.L.

93
POINTS

WINE ENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE

APRIL 2022

Subtle aromas of underbrush, new leather, tobacco and camphor waft out of the glass. Tightly knit and full-bodied, the palate features dried cherry, star anise and ground clove framed in rather assertive, close-grained tannins... - K.O.

92
POINTS

vinous

DECEMBER 2021

...Cherry, wild berries, crushed stone and savory herbs. This is silky and elegant in feel, offering balanced acidity matched by masses of tart red and black berry fruits, along with firming tannins. It's long, rich and dark with haunting inner florals, but also a surprisingly classic structure...— E.G.