...The concentration of the grapes reads in the wine's texture, broad and full, the combination of volume and ethereality bringing to mind freshly whipped matcha tea. The flavors echo that contrast, a full range of citrus notes filigreed with aromas of roses and herbs, and profound depths of savory minerality. – T.T.

Angles and curves collide in this intensely stony yet fruity kabinett. Semisweet in style, it's chock-full of concentrated quince, pineapple and grapefruit, but also framed by cool steel and vibrant lemon-lime acidity. A lip-smacking, penetrating sip that's delightful now, it will improve through 2030 and likely hold further still. —A.I.
