DECEMBER 2021

Delicate scents recalling spring blossoms, white and yellow stone fruit, flinty mineral and dried herbs form the nose. Elegantly structured, bone-dry and savory, the linear palate delivers ripe yellow apple, saline and smoky mineral notes before a bitter almond close. Juicy acidity keeps it fresh. —K.O.

...Citrus and orchard fruit followed by crushed stone and perfumed acacia honey. The wine proceeds over the palate with a soft and silky approach that is ultimately capped by a point of fresh acidity. For this, you might try a buttery fish-filled ravioli. — M.L.

...Displays an alluring bouquet of cracked white pepper, ginger, dried flowers and salty sea air, with only a whiff of yellow apple to fill out its fruit profile. There's amazing depth to be found in its soft textures, showing mineral-tinged orchard fruits, green citrus and stimulating acids... hard to put this glass down. — E.G.
