JULY 2022

An amazing dry riesling that richly deserves the Grand Cru designation. Wonderful nose of ripe pineapple with smoky and spicy notes. Very powerful, but every bit as elegant. Staggeringly mineral finish that takes your breathe away. So pure! Great aging potential. From over 80-year-old vines. Drink or hold. –J.S.

JANUARY 2023

...Immediately redolent of the herbal lift of warm sites. There is dried lemon peel, thyme, smoke and earth. Yet the palate reverts to the taut house style of precision. Here a most powerful beast was captured, with drive and power, all muscle. Its ripe freshness is countered by concentration and a pithy texture... (Bone-dry) –A.K.

MARCH 2023

...Delicate, bright fruit and spiciness on the nose along with lemon and granite notes. Fine-grained on the first attack, this is a playful, delicately juicy, dense and elegant Riesling with quite a lot of power on the finish. The wine is dry, pure, saline and grippy and reveals finesse and an almost buoyant character, yet it remains very intense on the aftertast... -S.R.
