

TAUB FAMILY VINEYARDS

"BECKSTOFFER MISSOURI HOPPER VINEYARD" CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2019

Napa Valley, CA

96

POINTS

DECEMBER 2022

Concentrated, contained and very young, this powerful, full-bodied wine tastes jam-packed with dark berries and dark chocolate while firm, fine-grained tannins give it a big mouthfeel... multifaceted wine... —J.G.

94

POINTS

JAMESSUCKLING.COM

AUGUST 2022

Cedar, cigar box and some baked red chili pepper on top of blackberries and chocolate. Plush yet fresh on the palate, with a silky, voluptuous tannin frame. A full-bodied Napa that shows depth, length, concentration and polish... — J.S.

94

POINTS

Decanter

JUNE 2022

Enticing aromas of black cherry liqueur, vanilla, baked clay and tobacco tinged with white pepper. Plush and weighty, with impressive concentration of red and black fruit flavours... the finish reveals salted dark chocolate and dried herbs... — J.C.

93

POINTS

Wine Spectator

DECEMBER 2022

Ripe, alluring and focused, with a steady beam of cassis and plum puree taking center stage, while light sassafras, red licorice and apple wood accents fill in throughout...- J.M.

93

POINTS

Robert Parker
eRobertParker.com

SEPTEMBER 2022

...Fruit driven, with scents of black plums, blackberries and cassis, plus minor herbal notes of tobacco and sage. It's medium to full-bodied, nicely supple and approachable already, with layers of dark fruit and spice that slowly unfold on the finish. —J.C.