APRIL 2023

Exudes aromas that foreshadow what's to come, with a central chalky-slate presence and fresh violet and mountain herb nuances underneath. Features generous raspberry and plum flavors that are fresh and pure, buoyed by lively, chalky acidity. Ends with finesse and fine tannins... —A.R.

SEPTEMBER 2022

...Hailing from a vineyard that takes special care of native flora, the lovely, slightly liqueur-like nose presents notes of licorice, touches of amaretti, sour cherry and plum aromas with hints of herb and thyme... This is a new style for the house and the Pedernal Valley as a whole, adding an extra dimension. — J.H

NOVEMBER 2022

The 2019 Appellation Malbec has intense aromas of honey and beeswax with an herbal, creamy and spicy twist, probably from the 12 months in French and American oak barrels. It's juicy and ripe without excess at 14% alcohol. It has fine, chalky tannins. Better with food. 95,000 bottles produced. -L.G.
