

JEAN-MICHEL GERIN

“CÔTE-BODIN” CÔTE-RÔTIE 2020

Côte-Rôtie (Rhône Valley), France

95-97
POINTS
vinous
DECEMBER 2022

...Offers palate-staining, spice-laced blueberry, cassis, kirsch and fruitcake flavors that show excellent depth and energy. The spice and floral notes echo a very long, penetrating, smoky finish shaped by steadily building but well-integrated tannins. Made with de-stemmed fruit and raised in one-third new oak. – J.R.

CELLAR SELECTION

95
POINTS
WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE
NOVEMBER 2023

The wine presents enticing brambly aromatics framed by black olives, violets, saffron and peppercorn, and a subtle hint of bacon drippings. On the palate, experience a delightful interplay of these notes, with a midpalate of plums, cassis and a granitic finish...elegantly complex... –A.C.C.

93
POINTS
Wine Spectator
WEB 2022

Delivers dark plum and cherry fruit flavors that are juicy and compact in feel, with hints of cast iron, worn leather and bay leaf also flowing through. Reveals a tapenade note that filters through the finish. For fans of the old-school style... –J.M.