

COL D'ORCIA

BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO 2018

Tuscany, Italy

93
POINTS
vinous
OCTOBER 2022

Masses of crushed cherries and cloves give way to nuances of spiced citrus peels and cedar... Round and pliant on the palate, with a balanced inner sweetness contrasting its mineral-tinged acids and tart wild berry fruits. Grippy tannins mount toward the close... as notes of salted licorice are left to resonate under an air of dried roses... A deep and characterful rendition... -E.G.

93
POINTS
Decanter
NOVEMBER 2022

...Beautifully weighted, it's full yet agile with enough stuffing to carry it over the next decade. Above all, it underscores the freshness of the vintage: fragrances reveal themselves slowly but are very much in the floral spectrum, with cherry and thyme blossoms lifted by traces of pepper. Crunchy red plum and succulent cherry flavours... - M.M.

93
POINTS
JAMES SUCKLING.COM
DECEMBER 2022

Roasted herbs, wild cherries, thyme and dried mushrooms on the nose. Medium to full body with silky yet firm tannins supporting supple and fresh layers. Excellent length with a delectably savory character. From organically grown grapes... -J.S.