...Nectar of honey, saffron and marmalade. It's delightfully rich and creamy, yet gorgeously balanced, seared by a razor's edge of lemon-lime acidity. It's an exceptional wine now, penetrating and persistent, but will surely delight for decades to come. – A.L.I

Lush, unctuous and filled with flavors of lady finger cream, glazed apricot, butterscotch and honey. Hints of taffy and white chocolate linger on the plush and lusciously spiced finish. Stupendously rich and sweet. Drink now through 2040. – K.M.
