WINEMAKING & VINTAGE NOTES

Gevrey-Chambertin is a large wine-producing village in the northern Côte de Nuits. The soils here are primarily clay and limestone based, with significant mineral deposits. La Justice vineyard site sits just below the village of Gevrey and is considered the best lieu-dit in Gevrey-Chambertin. Grapes are hand-harvested then carried in small wooden boxes to the cellars, where they are sorted. Fermentation takes place for 20 days in open wooden vats at a controlled temperature with treading.

AGEING

The wine is aged for 18 months in French oak barrels, one-third of which are new barrels.

TASTING NOTES

Ruby red in color with aromas of morello cherries. Very round and well-balanced, with subtle woody tannins and a silky texture. This racy wine can be kept for ten years.

Delicious with lamb, stew, chicken in wine-based sauces and cheeses.
