..A tightly wound nose, displaying more oyster shell scents than Pilot's other Chassagnes. The palate is very well balanced, light on its feet, a nimble Chassagne with a dash of white pepper and orange pith towards the finish. Stylish. – N.M.

Aromas of pear, citrus oil, white flowers and nutmeg preface the 2019 Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru Champgains, a medium to full-bodied and mouth-filling wine that's ample and satiny, with bright acids and a fleshy, gourmand profile. – W.K.
