DECEMBER 2019

...Black raspberry, cherry preserve and incense aromas... potpourri and baking spice nuances.... Appealingly sweet red and dark berry liqueur and spicecake flavors and a touch of candied flowers... Energetic in style, with fine-grained tannins adding shape to a long, floral-accented finish. - J.R.

MARCH 2021

Boysenberry and black cherry flavors are cutting and spry in this mineral, earthen expression of Châteauneuf-du-Pape sourced primarily from safre, or sandy soils... full-bodied and weighty on the palate but quite zesty and edged by firm, peppery tannins. —A.I.
