AUGUST 2018

Fresh and fleshy with essence-like apricots and plenty of grilled peaches and hazelnuts. Elegant, refined and composed with good minerals. Well-focused and powerful, this has the flesh of the vintage without being overrun. Special, very limited-production Condrieu. – J.S.

...Juicy and sharply delineated on the palate, offering intense orange, Anjou pear and honeysuckle flavors that deepen steadily on the back half. Smoothly combines power and finesse finishing on an emphatic mineral note, showing impressive energy and persistence. – J.R.
