Alsace, France

POINTS

AUGUST 2018

The palate brims with freshness. The concentrated body has texture from the zestiness but also that background of ripe richness. It finishes completely dry, with a streak of mandarin on the long finish. – A.K.

Beeswax and crushed pine notes are layered with poached apple, Marcona almond and lemon curd flavors in this dry, medium-bodied version, framed by sleek acidity and petrol-laced minerality. Drink now through 2026. – A.N.

APRIL 2018

Delicate tropical fruit and floral flavors that boast very good inner-mouth perfume. Finishes medium-long with a hint of bitter orange marmalade and just a tad of alcoholic warmth. – I.D.
