SEPTEMBER 2015

The 2013 vintage was very good for gewurz in Alsace. This wine shows a stone, spice and dried peach character. Hints of licorice too. Full-bodied, dry and spicy. Classic style. Try this to understand what dry gewurz is. Drink now. – J.S.

DECEMBER 2015

Powdery, creamy notes of rose, orange and mandarin oil unite in a concentrated, punchy palate that focuses on taste rather than aroma. This is rounded and rich with an immensely concentrated phenolic vein that lends structure and poise. The finish is lasting but demure. – A.K.

OCTOBER 2015

Quite spicy, herbal and floral nose where lemon zest and blossoms are displayed. Very elegant, piquant and mineral in its mouthwatering salinity and fruitiness this is a perfectly dry, really ripe, fresh and very well balanced, with a stimulating grip in the finish. – S.R.
