NOVEMBER 2017

From the grand cru village of Le Mesnil-sur-Oger, this tight, mineral-driven Champagne is bone dry. The ripe fruit softens the shock of the acidity but this fine bottling does need to... open up. —R.V.

Mouthwatering acidity focuses this racy blanc de blancs with flavors of lemon parfait, baked quince and pickled ginger while a hint of salted almond lingers on the refined finish. Disgorged April 2014. – A.N.
