OCTOBER 2011

A wine that's elegant overall. Weaves streamlined, racy acidity with layers of dried papaya, macerated peach, briny mineral and fresh alpine forest, with hints of lemon curd and wood smoke. ... leaves a fresh, mouth-watering impression, with lots of zesty spice and mineral character on the very long finish. – A.N.

FEBURARY 2008

Remarkably creamy and honeyed, with spice and truffle-infused peach preserves and tangerine liqueur, yet preserving a luscious core of fresh fruit, rich and viscous, let light on its feet and crystal clear. Butterscotch and toasted hazelnut, join the richly diverse choir here for a long, serene finish. – D.S.

JULY 2007

Full medium gold. Exotic, high-toned aromas of orange marmalade, honey and truffle. Superconcentrated, dense, very sweet and chewy, with a distinctly high-toned quality lifting the wine's exotic orange and gamey flavors. Very round, full, silky wine that remains very easy to drink. – S.T.
