APRIL 2021

Sweet berries and cherries on the nose with sweet tobacco, lead pencil and blackcurrants. It's full-bodied and very rich with layers of fruit and creamy tannins intertwined. Extremely long and creamy. Great Duhart...

MAY 2021

This is a ripe, classic Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine. Its strict initial character blossoms out into rich black-currant flavors that exude class. Backed by acidity and with hints of the wood aging still in place, the wine is just beginning its journey... – R.V.

NOVEMBER 2020

...Rich, smooth texture straight off the nose, continued by a velvety texture and a full mouthfeel. Serious with a long life ahead. This is one of the more voluptuous... Plenty of black fruits, bitter chocolate, liquorice, slate and pencil lead... Very good-quality...

...A seductively ripe, opulent nose of plum preserves, blackberry pie and chocolate-covered cherries... Medium-bodied, it is jam-packed with rich, spicy black fruit preserves, with floral accents and a velvety texture, finishing long and fragrant. So. Good. – L.P.B.

MARCH 2021

...A real powerhouse. Black cherry, gravel, spice, espresso and savory herbs infuse the 2018 with notable depth and power. A brooding, virile wine... packs a serious punch.... There is real density and weight here, with all of the natural richness of the year. – A.G.

MARCH 2021

This is packed with succulent blackberry and black currant fruit, along with mulling spice, sweet tobacco, licorice root and alder notes. ... The mouthfeel is alluring and the length is there for sure. For the cellar.
