

CHÂTEAU RIEUSSEC

CHÂTEAU RIEUSSEC 2016

Sauternes (Bordeaux), France

97

POINTS

JAMESSUCKLING.COM

FEBRUARY 2019

...Full-bodied and medium sweet with density and, at the same time, lightness... full of botrytis on the palate at the beginning and then turns fruity and very pretty at the end with citrus and fruit. Balanced, creamy and rich... already gorgeous. – J.S.

96+

POINTS

Robert Parker
eRobertParker.com

MARCH 2019

...Beautiful floral and citrus perfume of orange blossom, pink grapefruit, yuzu, lime leaves, lemongrass and fallen leaves with hints of nutmeg and candied ginger... the palate reveals loads of elegant, tightly wound layers and seamless freshness, finishing long and fragrant. – L.P.B

96

POINTS

WINEENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

APRIL 2017

Made by the Lafite-Rothschild team, this is a powerfully dense wine. It has intense botrytis and fine acidity, as well as sumptuous ripe marmalade and apricot flavors. This is certainly for long-term aging. - R.V.

94

POINTS

vinous

JANUARY 2020

..Plenty of botrytis on the nose, along with scents of honey, white peach, saffron, lanolin and walnut that gain intensity with aeration. The very well balanced palate presents a viscous opening and a fine bead of acidity. Generous and poised, with hints of marzipan and Turkish Delight decorating the finish. Excellent... –N.M.

93

POINTS

Wine Spectator

Web '19

Quite fresh, with acacia and honeysuckle notes out front, followed by a stream of mirabelle plum, yellow apple, pineapple and white peach flavors. Offers an unctuous feel on the finish while staying on the brighter side. Among the top efforts in the vintage... – J.M.