SPECIAL REPORT

...This is the best release yet from this joint venture between Domaines Barons de Rothschild (Lafite) and the Catena family, launched in 2000 Combining Malbec with 15% Cabernet Sauvignon, mostly from Paraje Altamira in the Uco Valley, but with some support from Las Compuertas in Luján de Cuyo, it's a stunningly complex wine, which marries the richness of Argentinean flavours with the finesse and nuance of a top Left Bank Bordeaux. The fruit is bright and luminous, the oak scented and well integrated, the tannins silky and caressing. What a red! - T.A.
