APRIL 2022

...An utterly profound young wine that unwinds in the glass with aromas of rose petals, raspberries and sweet spices mingled with notions of blood orange, violets and fresh tobacco... Full-bodied, deep and seamless, it's layered and multidimensional, with a concentrated core of vibrant fruit, lively acids and ripe, powdery tannins, concluding with a long, searingly intense finish.... – W.K.

...Crushed stones and violets really rising above the glass, together with iodine, seaweed and ink. Spellbinding. Full-bodied... with a fine cashmere-like texture and endless length and energy. You can sense the stones and the earth here, but then it reaches to the skies. It's open, but you feel the depth of the soil. A reference point for the vintage... – J.S.

...Touches of iris, with an earthiness alongside, coupled with a grip of tannins that expands through the mid palate... Strong liquorice and chocolate notes, but the emphasis is clearly on slate and crushed stones, cigar box and cloves, with a strong, serious spine... A reflection of just how impressively the Pomerol plateau has performed in the 2019 vintage... – J.A.

.... A pretty bouquet of pure red cherry and crushed strawberry scents, touches of rose petal and orange blossom emerging with time. The palate is medium-bodied and harmonious, with lithe tannins and good concentration. This Saint-Émilion has kicked on nicely since its showing from barrel. Worth seeking out. – N.M.
