ESTATE GRENACHE 2013

Sonoma County (Russian River Valley), CA

90  WINEENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE
JULY 2015
POINTS

Fermented entirely in concrete egg, this is a light, clear red exuberant in earthy cherry and cassis. Ethereal, it offers spice and plenty of length around a shy body, a bite of fruit on the finish. Made in small quantities at a fair price, it's one to try for its sheer rarity alone, a good example of another light-bodied red that can do well in the appellation. – V.B.
