

NOBLE TREE

SONOMA COUNTY, UNITED STATES

Noble Tree was originally founded as a passion project by two sommeliers/restaurateurs to produce wines for their fellow industry friends. Production began as a true “garagistes-négociant” style winery, focusing on healthy vineyard sources, hand-harvesting and honest winemaking practices. Marc D. Taub, recognized the potential of these extraordinary Sonoma

County-based wines early on. In 2019, the Taub family became proprietors of Noble Tree, vowing to uphold the mission and essence of the winemaking philosophy: to respect the varietal character and reflect the vineyard site and vintage conditions in each wine.

- Noble Tree was originally founded in 2008 by two sommeliers/restaurateurs as a true “garagistes-négociant” style winery, focusing on healthy vineyard sources, hand-harvesting and honest winemaking practices
- Originally founded by Thomas George Estates in 2008, the Taub Family took stewardship of the winery in 2019 and extended the family commitment to the wines of Sonoma County
- Noble Tree is a “by the glass” darling for sommeliers and was named “Value Brand of the Year” in 2017 by Wine Enthusiast
- All small production, estate fruit – predominantly from Wickersham Ranch and Chalk Hill. Estate designation provides for total control of all facets of farming; each vineyard is fine-tuned for quality over quantity
