TERROIR & VINTAGE NOTES

Bodegas Callia is situated in the Tulum Valley in Argentina's province of San Juan. It is nestled between the Pie de Palo hills to the north and the Cerro Chico Del Zonsa to the south. Two finca estates encompass 700 acres of land: Finca Pie de Palo and Finca 9 De Julio. At 630 meters above sea level, the area is blessed by temperate climate, low rainfall and rich sandy alluvial and clay loam soil; the result is intense and fruity wines that reflect the rich terroir of this region.

WINEMAKING

Grapes are crushed and destemmed immediately after harvest to preserve freshness and fruit character.

TASTING NOTES

Intense aromas of white flowers and apricot on the nose. In terms of the palate, the wine is balanced and soft with notes of peaches, tropical fruit, and a hint of jasmine. Pairs well with pasta in cream or garlic sauce, chicken dishes, salads, and a variety of cheeses.
