APRIL 2023

Grapes from the family's southwest-facing Maso Pianizza vineyard at around 600m above sea level are matured on the lees for more than 10 years – this 2010 was disgorged in 2022. Alpine flowers mingle with lanolin and honey scents, while the steely-fresh palate combines stone fruit and orange peel with patisserie and spice. The long finish showcases juicy lime and white peach... – J.B.

MARCH 2022

White spring flower, bread crust, toasted nut and orange zest aromas form the nose. Smooth and elegantly structured, the palate shows the complexity of age and the freshness of a younger wine, delivering ripe yellow apple, pear, flinty mineral and hazelnut framed against a refined, continuous perlage. Fresh acidity keeps it focused and precise. –K.O.

DECEMBER 2023

...An understated beauty, enticing with a delicate blend of white flowers and nectarine complemented by chamomile and candied lime. It's soothingly round with a silken wave of fine bubbles and tart orchard fruits enlivened by vibrant acidity. The 2010 finishes with medium length and potent, leaving a bitter lemon zest twang and hints of brown spice to fade... –E.G.
