FEBRUARY 2021

...Raises the bar very high for all Italian sparkling wines... A silky texture and finely tuned aromas of apricot, Golden Delicious apple, honey, pie crust and crushed dolomitic quartz. This fine and elegant sparkler spreads evenly over the palate with fine beading and a creamy texture... –M.L.

JULY 2021

So much power and so much freshness... making this a very serious spumante that proves Italy can play in the first league of sparkling wines. A whole fjord of candied citrus, underlined by delicate, toasty lees character and very fine mousse on the full-bodied but very crisp palate. Huge finish! Drink or hold. – J.S.

Bread-crust, honey and hazelnut aromas give way to ripe stone fruit and dried herb. The aromas carry over to the rich complex palate along with orange rind and dried pineapple. Fresh acidity keeps it youthful. —K.O.

OCTOBER 2021

A harmonious version, with a firm backbone of acidity finely meshed with the lacy mousse and detailed flavors of dried white cherry, toast point and chopped almond, showing rich hints of saffron, licorice and lemon marmalade. Ends with a long, creamy finish. Disgorged 2020. Drink now through 2028. — A.N.
